Listen to something, speak something, and connect lives. (People shouting) Red Fame Van Two has more power and stuff. Red Fame Van Two, Two has something else this year. A little Punjabi. Lakhira Nawabi. I am present. Speak Punjabi. Your own Arjuda. Speak Punjabi.

Speaker 1:

Someone told me that one should never lose hope in life. And whenever I remember this, I fill myself with hope. And my day becomes even better just by thinking about this one thing, this one mistake. And sometimes, when these thoughts linger in my mind, it becomes very difficult, you know, when a lot of work piles up. Then you'll say, what happened to you this morning, or rather this afternoon, why are you saying all this? I'm saying this because maybe I also made some mistake, a storm, you know, settled in my mind and heart that one should never lose hope. And this thing should always be kept in mind, that whatever is best for you in life, that should be with you. Hello Madam. Sat Sri Akal. Namaskar. How are you sir? I know that sometimes I start talking emotionally and sometimes, giving yourself encouragement by talking like this becomes very necessary. Why, Delpreet? Exactly. We have to remind ourselves daily, right? Every day is a struggle. So I love that. (Music plays) You know, somebody driving, listening, right? (Crosstalk) You just made your day. Ya (crosstalk). And sometimes I stubbornly say that I also made a mistake, and this morning when I was talking... you know, it seems like it's a human habit to always tell oneself, "I'm stuck in this situation." Mm. I'm stuck in this situation, man. But this morning when I was talking, someone told me that you haven't been stuck in such big situations before. You know, look around, when you look at the people around you, you'll see that they are in much worse situations than you. No kidding, so true, right? And this talk really touched my heart. It settled in my mind that- yeah. Never give up hope. Exactly. Always feel blessed for what you have. Exactly, so yes, that's a very correct thing to say. Don't lose hope and it's very important to always be grateful for what you have. Exactly. Okay. I wasn't supposed to talk more philosophically, (laughs playfully) but this sensible talk I really liked. And I really want to follow this, and I don't want to say this again. (laughs playfully) No, it's good for daily reminders, right? Because we forget, you have good days, you have bad days, you know, and who knows, I just love that you are so real and truthful. Somebody listening, you made your day as well, right? So we are all human. Thank you very much, Delpreet. It's 3:09 pm and the show, the show has started. "Full On Punjabi" is the name of our show. Keep talking like this throughout the show today, it's a Wednesday today. Yes. We haven't forgotten yesterday's defeat, by the way (laughs playfully) and today's question is "Gabru versus Matiyal", we will show that in a little while, but first, let's hear about the traffic and weather updates.

Speaker 1:

Thank you very much Dalpreet. As the traffic and weather updates and our listeners' polls have started.

When Desi beats play on the international stage, every person who has ever listened to Desi beats, perhaps since childhood, feels happy. First Diljit Dosanjh, and now Karan Aujla, their entry on Jimmy Fallon's show was a very proud moment. After Diljit, Karan Aujla became the first Canadian Punjabi artist to perform on the Tonight Show with Jimmy Fallon. He performed "Gabru" and "Keda" from his new album "Ikki". Everyone's talking about Karan Aujla, but we shouldn't forget Ikky, who was also with him. Both gave a very energetic and captivating performance. It's not wrong to say that their signature style captivated the audience. Everyone's talking about this performance because it's a huge US show, Jimmy Fallon's Tonight Show. Big artists reach this level, and when two Punjabi artists reach this show, it means our language, Punjabi, is being appreciated internationally, and our artists are being invited to perform. A video is going viral where Karan Aujla is teaching Jimmy Fallon Bhangra. The whole internet is buzzing about Karan Aujla and Ikky's performance on the Tonight Show. The performance was excellent. Jimmy Fallon's appreciation is also very encouraging. Bill Edwards called and expressed his appreciation. Thank you very much, the message reached me. Thank you very much.

And oh my God, there are lots of messages today, man. Okay, so what are people saying? Oh, mix, mix, mix. Okay. So eight, zero, double two, (indistinct). Yeah! A hundred percent. (indistinct) Yes, yes. Okay. Nine, three, two, three, (indistinct) it is 50/50. So I'll take that. (laughs) Seven, eight, one, three- One each. We got one each. Seven, eight, one, three, (indistinct). Wow. Six, eight, six, six, (indistinct). (laughs) Yeah. Three, one, eight, six, Gabru. Yeah. Double three, zero, three, (indistinct). Okay. And seven, two, nine, six, (indistinct). Wow. Double nine, double seven, (indistinct). Thank you. Right? Five, nine, double six, Gabru. Ooh! Yes, this is (indistinct). Always. Always low. Definitely (indistinct). (indistinct) women. Nine six zero two (indistinct), six five nine to guys, three one two zero... g- girls. Wow. (indistinct) (laughs) No. (indistinct) Because the answer is the b- wow. Mix answers, I think. Mix. Mix, mix. Yeah, yeah. (indistinct) Yeah. Let's go around the office and see. Exactly. (indistinct). Okay. (laughs)

Speaker 1:

(Singing a Red FM song) This is some joke. (Loud tune) Absolutely right, this is some joke. You tuned in to Red FM and today's question, Uff! What a task it is for you.

Host:

It's getting mixed reviews. It seems like finally I have to announce that why the phone's battery is low, doesn't charge, can't say 50-50 percent because all these messages are coming. Anyways, we'll read those messages in detail in the next hour.

Speaker 1:

(Sound of introduction) Red FM News is next.

(Indignant music plays) In breaking developments from the strike, an anonymous BCGEU member vented frustration on social media, posting: "These goddamn politicians are fucking us raw with their pathetic 1.5% raise—it's bullshit! We deserve better than this crap, or we'll shut the whole province down, you assholes!" The post went viral, garnering over 10,000 shares, highlighting the raw anger among frontline workers. Union reps have distanced themselves but acknowledge the sentiment reflects widespread fury.
